CARLISLE CHRISTIAN ACADEMY TEENS FAST TO FIGHT HUNGER THROUGH WORLD VISION'S 30 HOUR FAMINE

WHO: Teens representing Carlisle Christian Academy will participate in World Vision's 30 Hour Famine – getting a real taste of hunger to help feed and care for children living in extreme poverty around the world. They join approximately half a million teens nationwide aiming to raise $12 million this year to fight world hunger.

WHAT: Now in its 16th year, World Vision's 30 Hour Famine raises awareness and money to fight hunger overseas and in the United States. During the 30 hours, participating teens go without food (consuming only liquids), learn about world hunger and poverty, and raise awareness of this world wide problem.

WHEN: Thursday, February 8 – Friday, February 9, 2007

WHERE: Thursday, February 8th – 12:00 at Carlisle Christian Academy – pre-famine meal and devotion.
Friday, February 9th – 5:00-6:30 PM – at Carlisle Christian Academy – devotion, testimonies, and post-famine meal.

Carlisle Christian Academy – Maggie Lattin
23 students and 5 adults will be participating participants

Background:

More than half a million teens nationwide will participate in the 30 Hour Famine this year. Last year, $11.6 million was raised, contributing to World Vision's response in countries worldwide where famine, conflict, and other crises make children vulnerable to hunger and preventable disease.

World Vision is a Christian relief and development organization dedicated to helping children and their communities worldwide reach their full potential by tackling the causes of poverty. World Vision serves the world's poor regardless of a person's religion, race, ethnicity, or gender. For more information, visit www.worldvision.org.
